

Events 2014

Sviaz Expocomm 2014, 13-16 May 2014, Moscow

26-th International Exhibition

The 26-th International Exhibition for ICT, Communication Services and Mass Media Communication. Sviaz Expocomm Moscow is the annual meeting for ICT industry executives and business professionals in Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States. The event features major international firms and domestic Russian manufacturers and service suppliers. Sviaz Expocomm Moscow is the central event in Russia for showcasing ICT industry achievements, which brings together leading companies and industry experts, network operators, device manufacturers and service providers from 28 nations (543 exhibitors and more than 20000 participants this year)

Key Highlights of Agenda:

- Seminar: TP-LINK - network equipment for problem solving of any complexity
- Seminar: Services of Russian Satellite Communications Company
- All Roads Lead to Data Center Round Table, Development of Data Center Industry
- The First Forum of Innovative Companies "Telecom Trends' 2014"
- 2-nd Russian Case Conference "Operator's Loyalty Marketing & Big Data Management"
- Seminar: Access networks. New capabilities. New problems. New threats.
- Modern communication lines for electric grid companies

NefteGaz 2014, 28 May 2014, Moscow

15-th International Exhibition.

NefteGaz is not only Russia's leading oil and gas industry exhibition where the equipment for oil and gas industry is widely presented.

NefteGaz is an effective platform for business interaction among Russian and foreign oil and gas industry specialists, for launching new projects and being in line with the very latest global trends and industry development.

Hillhead 2014, 24-26 June Hillhead Quarry, Buxton, UK

The Hillhead Quarry Exhibition is the world's biggest working quarry show which provides a biennial showcase for the UK quarrying, construction and recycling equipment manufacturing industry with the aims to assist UK business involved in the mining sector across the mining lifecycle.

The Hillhead Quarry Exhibition internationalised the event this year by targeting and engaging a range of international buyers and decision makers.

UKTI has identified a number of key opportunities across the globe which offer potential business wins for the UK. This event focused on mining and quarrying equipment provides a key focus for the UKTI network and potential customers to learn more about this offer.

The organisers of Hillhead 2014 report that total attendance at this year's event was 17,559.

Russian CFO Summit , - October 2014, Moscow

The Adam Smith Russian CFO Summit is the largest and longest-running annual meeting for the CFO community in Russia, bringing together senior finance executives from across the country and beyond and providing a unique opportunity to benchmark, share experience and best practice and discuss the latest developments in the profession.

Key 2014 topics for debate:

The macroeconomic outlook and its impact on the role of the CFO;

Key means to cut costs and maintain liquidity;

The strategic role of the CFO - why your viewpoint is more important than ever;

The CFO as a business partner;

Driving your team to deliver the required results;

Interacting with key internal and external stakeholders;

Forecasting and budgeting; Taxation; Capital markets and raising finance in the current climate; M&A; IFRS;

Treasury and cash management;

New approaches to Risk management;

Optimising business processes;

Transfer Pricing

and much more