About Sviaz Expocomm 2015 trade show:

Russia's largest international exhibition for the telecommunications industry

For over 30 years, Sviaz-Expocomm has been the largest and most prestigious industry event in Russia, the CIS and Eastern Europe.

Every year it serves as the most excellent place for industry professionals to network, to promote technology and exchange information. Sviaz-Expocomm enjoys a high international standing and is one of the major events used by overseas IT manufacturers to promote their products and develop their business in Russia.

High technology to consolidate the market

Since its launch Sviaz-Expocomm has achieved well-deserved prestige and become one of the country's largest exhibitions for the state-of-the-art communications, data processing and computer technology. It not only brings together telecommunications and IT professionals, but also reflects the national market for high technology.

Most important event for industry professionals
